

Risepointe

architecture • design • interiors

JOB DESCRIPTION GRAPHIC DESIGNER

Risepointe is a fast-growing architecture and Interior design firm that specializes in helping evangelistic churches, Christian Schools and nonprofits develop beautiful and missional places of community and worship. We are one company in two locations, both Seattle and Chicago. Our team is tight, we have a lot of fun, work hard, and are flexible to family and recreational time.

Risepointe is looking for a creative graphic designer to join our marketing team. This is an exciting opportunity to help us build our brand identity from the ground up. To this point, we have done all the graphic work internally so we are excited to hand the reins to a design professional who can help us with both internal and external projects.

Specific Duties and Responsibilities:

- Work with Risepointe assets to produce content
- Edit current project photos and update social media
- Create marketing materials for Risepointe
- Update Risepointe website
- Create Visual Case Studies
- Build and Maintain the Risepointe Graphic Design Standard
- On-time delivery of project milestones
- Coordination with project managers regarding project scope, budget and deliverables
- Lead branding only projects from start to finish
- Create Signage Packages for Customers

Qualifications:

- Fulfill the duties required of Risepointe staff as outlined
- Be a person of character in all aspects of professional and personal life
- Degree in graphic design
- Proficiency in Photoshop, Adobe Illustrator, InDesign, JavaScript, or comparable
- Strong organizational skills.

Risepointe offers competitive pay rates, a relaxing and friendly work environment, and an opportunity to work on projects all over the country with varying project types and scales.

Qualified and interested candidates should submit resume, cover letter and work samples to: info@risepointe.com No phone inquiries will be accepted.